[NUMB. 812.]

THE South-Carolina Gazette.

From MONDAY November 27th, to MONDAY December 4th, 1749.

Mr. Timothy,

THE Governor, in his Speech to the General Aſſembly at their late Meeting, having recommended to their Conſideration, ſome expedient Method to be taken, to encourage the Introduction here of Foreign Proteſtants. — And it being talked abroad, that the Aſſembly have now that Subject under their Animadverſion: A Club, whereof I am a Member, took that Matter under Debate. I therefore take Leave to give you their Sentiments upon it, and in which they were unanimous.

That the Acceſſion of White People among us, will not only conduce greatly to our Strength and Security here, but prove an Advantage to Great-Britain, by multiplying the Conſumers of its Manufactures. And, that as People are always to be deemed the Wealth of a State, we ſhould rather encourage their Migration hither from other Parts, than from our Mother Country or Siſter Colonies, each of which may ſtill maintain as many more Inhabitants as at preſent poſſeſſed of.

We heard of ſeveral Expedients that were propoſed, to encourage the bringing over of Palatines in particular, great Numbers of thoſe People being now to be had, if proper Means were taken to induce the Owners of Veſſels to bring them hither rather than to Philadelphia, where it's ſaid their Paſſages are ſoon paid for and the Veſſels diſpatched: So that to be upon a Par with that Colony, we ſhould take the ſame Method, which is this, — ſeveral wealthy People join in Payment for the Paſſage of a Ship's Cargo, and take the People's Bond, or a Mortgage of their Lands when they get them, for a Reimburſement.

That Scheme we think will not ſuit 99 in 100 of the People of this Province, who, by Means of a long late War, are in Debt themſelves; being much impoveriſhed, not only by having laboured under heavy Taxes, as well in defending ourſelves as our neighbouring Colonies, but by the lamentable Decay of the Value of our Produce ſent from us, and the immoderate Expence of all Supplies brought to us. Very different was the Caſe of the Penſylvania Inhabitants, whoſe Country (tho' ſhort of ours in Value of its Produce in Times of Peace) is not ſo much expoſed to the Incurſion of Indians or Invaſion of Enemies, and to whom a Time of War was a Time of Harveſt, their Bread, Flour, Beef and Bacon, was all that Time ſold at an high Price, and the Food of their Enemies as well as their Inmates; ſo that at the End of the War, the People of that Colony enjoy vigorous Health, while many of us are here but juſt creeping out upon Crutches: And tho' their Scheme be good, yet we think, in our preſent recovering Condition, we ſhould be contented to crawl a-while, live upon a ſpare Diet, and not take in more at once than we can digeſt.

Were all the Avenues of Germany to be ſhut up in a Year, and no more People after that Time to be expected from thence, it would become us, undoubtedly, to exert our Endeavours, and make a Strain at once to ſecure as many as we could: But, as we have had People from thence, after a long Calm of Peace in Europe, why may we not ſtill expect that (while Liberty of Conſcience and an eaſy Government remain in Britiſh America) People of Foreign Countries, who in their native Soil are Strangers to both, will be invited to become Britiſh Subjects?

There were many other Expedients talk'd of at our Club, ſuch as, a Loan-Office, ſomething ſimilar to the Penſylvania Scheme; but it was repreſented in ſuch an indigeſted Manner, that even the Propoſer did not well underſtand it—and the ſagacious thought, it would at beſt appear to be but a Job of the Projectors, ſo that Propoſition was ſoon ſilenced. Several other Overtures were curſorily mentioned, ſuch as, ſending Abroad Emiſſaries to proclaim the Fertility of our Country, and to ſcatter about Pamphlets of Encomiums and Encouragements, &c. But at laſt, a Gentleman who had been formerly in the Aſſembly, and who is a Perſon well acquainted with our provincial Funds, as well as the real Intereſt of the Public, propoſed,

That ſuch as were diſpoſed to embark in a Loan-Office, would well employ their Courtely in Relief of ſeveral of our preſent Inhabitants, who lately (in the Time of War) became either unfortunate in Trade or Tillage, (many of whom he ſaid he could then mention) and who before were uſeful People, but from the Badneſs of the Times became diſtreſſed and indigent. That, without vyeing with Penſylvania for an equal Acquiſition of Foreigners at once, we might be contended with ſuch a gradual Introduction of them, as we might be enabled to make by the preſent Fund appropriated for that Purpoſe: And that we ſhould conclude, in the firſt Place, to ſettle them conveniently. An Account of whoſe thriving Condition, by planting Wheat, Barley, Indico, Cotton and ſuch like, being Owners of Stocks of Horſes, Hogs and Cattle, of having Mills erected for their Grain at the public Expence, and Utenſils provided for other Parts of their Induſtry, would obtain more Credit, and be a greater Invitation to our Country than all the Panegirics it could have from mercenary Miſſionaries; as the Succeſs of a Crokatt, a Shubrick, or a Beſwicke, but a few Years here in the Mercantile Way, or of a Lynch, or Huger, or a Serré, in the Planting Way, with many other ſuch Inſtances, proves more in Favour of Carolina, than all the Pamphlets that were ever wrote about it.

The ſame Member wiſhed, that the Act of Aſſembly eſtabliſhing the Townſhip Fund, might be reviſed, and altered in ſuch a Manner, as to prevent any unthrifty Applications of it, ſuch as, Fees for Petitions, Fees to Door-keepers, Fees to Clerks for reading Petitions, Fees to Ditto for Copies of Orders, Fees for Warrants directed to the Surveyor-General, Fees to the Surveyor-General for Precepts to his Deputies, Fees to Deputy-Surveyors for laying out the Land, Fees to Ditto for platting the Land, Fees again to the Surveyor-General for certifying the Plat, Fees for a Fiat to make out the Grant, and Fees for the Grant, with half a Pound of Wax to ſolemnize the Charity, beſides the great Expence and Loſs of Time the poor Foreigner may poſſibly be liable to, while he waits in Charles-Town to go thro' the long Dance of Ceremonies.

It was, in the ſecond Place, wiſhed, that one large Tract of Land were at once laid out and ſurveyed, a Plat made of it, and that Plat ſubdivided into Lots or Parcels, and each Parcel numbered in regular Sequences; as, for Inſtance, in the Plat of Charles-Town, that the whole Tract were conveyed to two or three reputable Truſtees, whoſe printed Grants might paſs a ſufficient and ſpeedy Title: From ſuch an OEconomy, it is computed, the preſent Townſhip Fund, with a conſiderable Part that might be ſpared from the Fortification Fund, would ſuffice to pay the Paſſages hither, and Accommodation here, of about 700 poor Foreigners in a Year; whoſe good Reception at firſt, and Proſperity afterwards, would very probably induce their more wealthy Countrymen to come over and ſettle here, without any Expence at all to the Public.

And, to encourage Maſters of Veſſels to bring over any Britiſh or Iriſh Paſſengers that ſhould incline to come this Way, it was our Wiſh, that ſuch Part of our County-Court Law ſhould be repealed, which admits People to ſwear to their Books as all the Evidence requiſite to prove their Debts; ſuch a Repeal would make it neceſſary for all Perſons in Buſineſs, to keep white Clerks or Servants, to prove the Delivery of Goods or other Cauſe of their Demands.

There

There is no Queſtion made, but his Excellency our Governor, will chearfully aſſent to any Bill that ſhall be offered by the Council and Aſſembly, for putting the Township Fund upon a more frugal Footing, without any Regard to his Excellency's forty Pence: As he has been pleaſed lately to declare, a good Name, and the Affections of the People were more to be deſired, than to lay up Riches. I am perſuaded, Mr. Timothy, it's hoped, you will often remember this, and that we ſhall find your Rebearſals verified by convincing Inſtances. I am, Your, &c. D. C.
